Parish Giving Tree Coming

This year the Giving Tree will be done differently due to the COVID-19 pandemic. We will not have the traditional Christmas tree with the tags on it. The tags will be given out before and after mass on the weekends beginning with Thanksgiving weekend, November 28-29. Only gift cards, toys and crafts (new and unopened are requested.) As always, we thank you for your past generosity and your help this year in making the Christmas season happier for those in need.

Current Mass Schedule

Saturdays: 4pm = Anticipatory Mass for Sunday

Sundays: 8am = Sunday Mass

10am = Sunday Mass

Holiday Coat Drive

St. Elizabeth of Hungary Parish will be conducting a coat drive beginning November 7th and continuing through December 13th.

Collection boxes will be in back of the church and you can drop off any used, but in good condition, winter coats, hats, scarfs and gloves in the boxes.

Because of the Covid-19 pandemic and the tough economic times we are presently going through, there are a lot of families suffering in our city and the surrounding communities - some without jobs, some with cut hours of employment and some without income coming into the household.

We ask for your generous support of this program as you have done in the past. God Bless -

Deacon John and the committee.

Gospel Reflection

November 1, 2020
Feast of All Saints

I remember as a child the meticulousness my father would bring to a task. Whether it be tending to a chore in the yard, repairing something, or painting a room, the tiniest of every detail demanded his attention. He had great patience. I benefited greatly by his example and remember these lessons well. We all need examples to follow. It is important to identify folks who excel at simple things and show us how to do things well. There are those among us and those who have gone before us who serve as these models and witnesses. They are ordinary people who in their "extraordinary ordinariness" capture our attention and allow us to see things more clearly.

These are the prophets, martyrs, teachers, witnesses, heralds, and innovators who bring a single-minded devotion to God to even the simplest of tasks they perform. They have an openness to being used and become vessels of Divine justice, mercy, and presence. They call us to the "more" of life and point us to the Gospel in all of its simplicity and splendor. They remind us of the little ones of the Kingdom and the values we all need to cultivate and possess. They are the poor in spirit, the meek, the merciful, and the peacemaker who often are rejected not only by those who have far different agendas but by those you think would welcome them.

All of the saints in heaven and on earth form this cloud of witnesses who journey with us as we make our way through life. They offer us inspiration, wisdom, intercession, and support. They direct us toward true happiness and remind us that we are all called to be saints. All it takes is desire, love, and fidelity. There is much we can learn from the official saints of the church. Their guidance is ever before us and ever with us. But there is also a lot to learn from the unofficial saints of the church. They sit beside us every Sunday, are our neighbors and ordinary people we meet every day. Because of the devotedness of their faith, they remind us to keep going, remain focused, and cultivate purpose and meaning, and give voice to those who have none. The inspiration is all around us.

Pay attention to the details. Do what you do with great love. Know that you are not alone. Believe that you can persevere. Have great faith.
